

Remarks

Claim Objections.

Claim 61 depends from claim 58 which appears a proper dependent claim. Applicant believes that the Examiner's objection is, in fact, addressed to claim 63 which improperly depends from claim 62. Thus, the dependency of claim 63 has been amended to correct this.

Claim 81 has been amended as suggested by the Examiner. Applicant is grateful to the Examiner for highlighting the typographical error in this claim.

35 USC §112.

Claim 58 has been amended in a manner believed to address the single means claim objection. Some of claims 59 to 77 have been amended to take account of the changes to claim 58 and claim 62 has been cancelled.

Non-statutory obviousness type double patenting.

A terminal disclaimer is filed in respect of US6731635 which is in the common ownership of the assignee.

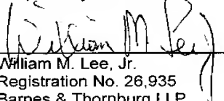

Prior art of record.

There is nothing in the prior art of record not relied on that teaches the claimed arrangement or would lead one of ordinary skill in the art to the claimed arrangement.

Favorable reconsideration of this application is therefore respectfully solicited.
